

A Storybird

Fitting in a garbage can is very hard!

by Rachel

A Storybird
Fitting in a garbage can is very hard!

By Rachel Illustrated by Paul McDougall
Published on March 31, 2011

© Storybird 2011. All rights reserved. Not for resale.

My name is Bouncy. I am very puffy.
I have lots of friends. They are very kind and they tell me everything but occasionally they are a little mischievous.

My friend Mousie said that fitting in a garbage can is very hard. She said it is very tight and it is extremely dark and there 's no yummy cheese in there.

Once my friend Buggy went in a garbage can and he said the same except he said that there is no delicious honey in there. So one day I wondered if I should go inside a garbage can.

I tried fitting in a garbage can but guess what ... I was stuck!

I called Cake but she didn't answer. "I guess I'm stuck in the tight garbage can."

Since then there was no answer from Cake, so then I called my friend bunny.

After a few minutes Bunny arrived with his soccer ball. But by accident...
he dropped the soccer ball and it hit Bouncy on the body.

I fell right inside the garbage can!
“I guess it is not hard to fit inside a garbage can particularly!”

The End

The world needs your stories

storybird.com